OBITUARY

Elder Charles George Knighton was born February 26, 1937, to Mr. Jimmy and Armetta Knighton in Edison, Georgia. He received his childhood education at Saint James elementary school, and was a high school graduate of Henry T. Singleton High School in Morgan, Georgia, class of 1958.

He joined the New Hope Missionary Baptist Church, at an early age, where he was a Sunday School teacher. He later moved to Dothan, Alabama. Where he was later born into holiness and became a Superintendent of Sunday School in 1968, and went on to become an ordained elder of the Pentecostal Deliverance Faith Temple, Inc., in 1981; where he served faithfully until the departing of this life. He departed this life August 12, 1984 at the Southeast Medical Center of Dothan, Alabama.

He leaves to mourn a devoted wife, Mrs. Betty Baxter Knighton, one daughter, Martha Lois Freeman, and one son-in-law, Daniel Lee Freeman, two granddaughters, Neshedra and Sheena Freeman, all of Dothan. A loving mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Knighton, two brothers, Tommy Knighton, Morgan, Ga., Isaih Knighton, Newark, N. J., Four sisters, Mary Nelson, Morgan, GA., Carolyn Ford, Albany, Ga., Alice Jackson and Emma Baxter, both of Newark, N. J., ten sisters-in-law, thirteen brothers-in-laws; aunts uncles, nephews, nieces; and a host of relatives and friends.

Elder Charles Knighton's most favorite Bible verse:

"Finally, my brethern, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might."

Ephesians 6:10
