Obituary

Mother Mary L. King entered eternal rest on Monday, February 16, 2009 at the Whitehouse Nursing Home, Orange, New Jersey. She was born in Arlington, Georgia on November 14, 1911 to Gene and Tempie Wakefield.

She received her formal education in the Arlington School System, Arlington, Georgia.

She resided in Haines City, Florida and later relocated to Newark, New Jersey and became a member of Zion Hill Baptist Church, Newark, New Jersey and later joined Sweet Beulah Baptist Church, Newark, New Jersey then New Born Baptist Church under the leadership of her late son, Rev. Willie J. King. There she served as Church Mother.

Mother King exemplified the life style of a mother who nurtured many in the family and the community during her 97 years. She also enjoyed reading, singing, cooking, good food and Praising God. She took great pride in her appearance and was known for her beautiful nails and hair styles.

Mother King leaves to cherish her precious memories her daughter-in-law Evangelist Claretta King; grandson, Bishop Charles Harris, Jr. (Janet); granddaughter, Minister LeWanda Pleasant (William): 3 great grand children, 11 great-great grandchildren, God daughter, Olivia Bowan and a host of other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her two sons, Rev. Willie J. King and Charles Harris, Sr.

“Only a Mother”

There are times when only a Mother's love
Can understand our tears,
Our bitter disappointments and all our childish fears,
There are times when only a Mother's heart
Can share the joy we feel when something that we've dreamed about quite suddenly is real!

There are times
when only a Mother's words can make us want to smile and give us the assurance that makes life more worthwhile,

There are times
when only a Mother's faith
Can help us on life's way.
And inspire in us the confidence
we need from day to day,
Yes, so often through our lifetime
Whether skies are grey or blue It seems
There are countless times when only a Mother will do.

The LORD Is My Shepherd

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever. Amen
